

SERIES OF BOOKS FOR TEACHING,
BY MRS. LOVECHILD.

Sold by E. NEWBERRY, Corner of St. Paul's Church-Yard, London.

THE Infant's Friend—Part I.—A Spelling
Book, &c.—Price 8d.

The Infant's Friend—Part II.—Reading
Lessons—Price 1s.

The Child's Grammar.—Price 6d.

Parfing Lessons for young Children.----- Price 9d.

The Mother's Grammar.—Price 6d.

Parfing Lessons for Elder Pupils.--Price 1s. 3d.

SCHEMES FOR TEACHING,

Under the Idea of AMUSEMENT.

THE Infant's Delight; a Specimen of Cuts in a superior Stile for Children; with a Book containing their Names, as easy reading Lessons; and an Address to Mothers: in an engraved case.—Price 1s. 6d.

The

SCHEMES, &c.

The Figure Scheme; or, Figures rendered Pleasant to Children: in a bag, 3s.—in a box, with cuts as douceurs, 6s.

Where may be had,

The Village Matron, a miscellaneous Work for young Persons.—Price 1s.

The Sunday Miscellany, in Prose and Verse, for Young Persons.—1s.

A Short History of Insects; containing Rudiments of that Branch of Natural History: designed as an Introduction to the Study, and as a Pocket Companion to those who visit Museums: with a Frontispiece, explanatory of some Distinctions, and a Plate to each Order, giving one example of each Genus.—Uncoloured and sewed, 3s. 6d.

The Rational Dame; or, Hints towards supplying Prattle for Children, 1s. 6d.

A Short History of Quadrupeds, extracted from Authors of Credit; containing a great Number of Plates; the Animals arranged systematically, agreeable to Pennant, 2 vols. Price 5s.

